DRONE CONFSSIONAL

THAT I WOULD SEE, BUT NOT BE SEEN,
THAT I WOULD HAVE POWER TO HARM, WHEN NEEDED,
IF NEEDED, IT IS NEEDED. HARM TO STOP HARM.
THAT I WOULD NOT BE HARMED, THAT THOSE I LOVE
WOULD NOT BE HARMED. THAT SUCH WISHES
SUCH WISHES MADE FACT WOULD BE A THIN WALL,
A SINGLE UNMARKED DOOR, FROM DESERT BEAUTY,
FROM RED AND YELLOW DUST AND SAGE-COLORED
SUCCULENTS, A POWDERED PALETTE AND THE SKY
HIGH DESERT BLUE IN DAY, STARS AND DISTANCE

BEYOND STARS, AND TO THE WEST LAS VEGAS
A CLUSTER OF STARS HALF-SUBMERGED, PERPETUAL
LIGHT, AN OASIS FORCED OUT OF THE GROUND.
EVERYTHING ALREADY EXISTED AS DESIRE, MY DESIRE.
I HOVER OVER MY ENEMIES, WATCHING, I SEND OUT
WHISTLING FIRE, REORDER WHAT I FEAR, FEAR AGAIN.
