

The Switcheroo: Call for Ekphrastic Submissions

"Skipping Along," Jennifer Moses

Every month at Broadsided, artists respond to literature the editors have selected. Once a year, we turn the tables.

Send us writing in response to "Skipping Along" by artist Jennifer Moses.

Your response need not be literal—our hope is that the art and writing will, together, work to create a greater whole.

Artist Jennifer Moses is a painter living in Boston and a professor of art at the University of New Hampshire. She has exhibited her work throughout New England, is a member of the Kingston Gallery, and is a recipient of residencies at the Roswell Artist Program and Yaddo. jennifermosespainting.com

About Broadsided Press

Founded in 2005, Broadsided publishes an original visual/literary collaboration every month. Writing is chosen through open submissions. Artists allied with Broadsided respond visually. The resulting letter-sized pdf is designed to be downloaded and printed by anyone with a computer and printer. "Vectors" around the globe post Broadsided locally. We want to help you put words and art on your streets.
